

Dear

Welcome to our April newsletter. Avoca Engineering trusts all our customers enjoyed their Easter break and work is now back in full swing.

Quote of the month:

Change is never a loss, it is change only.

Welcoming new staff

Avoca Engineering extends a big welcome to our latest staff members

Management would like to welcome Feroz Syed Kahdri and Sampath Thirumalaisamy who started with us on the 19th March. Both Feroz and Sampath are skilled, focused toolmakers and they have settled in nicely after finding a unit in Wyong and purchasing a Toyota Camry to get around on the Central Coast. They are transitioning well into the local culture here. Our afternoon shift is in operation and with the increasing workload, we now have the workforce to handle it.

Apprenticeships
Australia

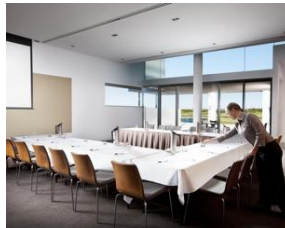

Management would like to announce the hiring of the first of two apprentice toolmakers

A big welcome to first year apprentice toolmaker Brandon Morison. Brandon started with us on the 2nd of April and is looking forward to his future possibilities. The search however, continues for a second apprentice. Management will only accept high caliber applicants so we are prepared to wait for the right one.

HunterNet

HunterNet will be holding its 2012 Planning Conference on Thursday the 14th of June at the beautiful Quay West

Resort, Magenta Shores. This will be an excellent opportunity to contribute towards the future direction of HunterNet as well as share ideas and set new strategies for the future. Overnight accommodation is available and there will also be a golf day on Friday the 15th.

CCMA

The Central Coast Manufacturing Association had its first meeting of 2012 at Trend Pac Tuggerah. About fifteen people attended the occasion that also included a tour of the area. A positive move for Central Coast manufacturers this year.

Sports take of the month

With the passing of the great Australian swimmer Murray Rose this week, it is only fitting we dedicate sports take of the month to this great athlete. Before Thorpe, before Phelps, before Spitz there was Rose who was a national hero in the 50's. With a unique style and a swag of Olympic gold, Murray Rose was a benchmark for a generation of swimmers to come.
